UNSPEAKABLE HORRORS IN SPAIN

British Parliamentarians Urge Immediate Action

London, November 29.
Six members of the British House of Commons including two Conservatives, one Liberal and three members who have gone to Spain as a party of investigators have communicated with His Majesty's Government through the British Embassy in Madrid as follows:
"After spending some days at Barcelona and Valencia—seat of the Spanish Government—and in Madrid, where we have been accorded the fullest facilities that circumstances have permitted to acquaint ourselves with the situation, we venture to issue an appeal. We doubt if the magnitude of the appalling catastrophe that faces the civilian population of Madrid is generally realized. We make no comment upon the military situation, but a city of a million inhabitants is being subjected to attack from ground and air. It is so far investigated that one road is and has been for twenty-one days past open to the outside world. The improvised Government machine has its hands full and its resources pledged in conflict. To a million inhabitants have been added hundreds of refugees.
"More than one quarter of the city is partially destroyed and uninhabitable. Civilian casualties are very heavy. Already starvation is at work and epidemics seem inevitable.
"We urge the need of immediate and large scale action by neutral powers working through an international organization.
"Evacuation and partial maintenance of women, children and non-combatants is urgent in order to mitigate—it cannot protect—the unspeakable horrors."
British Whig.

SOVIET ACADEMY SENSATION

Plot Discovered By Secret Police

(Hong Kong Daily Press) Special
Warsaw, Nov. 28.
Consternation reigned in Moscow as the result of the sensational announcement that the Soviet Secret Police, OGPU, have discovered extensive conspiracy in the academy of science and that many prominent members were arrested for "tendencies of dangerous political nature."
The editor of the semi-official paper "Izvestia," Bukharin, who is a member of the academy was also arrested.
As soon as the action of the police was announced, the governing board of the academy met and called upon the accused to answer the charges. Some confessed and begged to be pardoned, others held courageously to their convictions.
What steps will be taken is still uncertain, but the Soviet press is unanimous in demanding a thorough reorganization of the academy.

DELIGHTFUL RACING AT MACAO

Handsome Prizes In
The Lottery

The 33. Kinshan left Hong Kong punctually at 9.30 a.m. To begin with a N.E. wind was blowing and it was distinctly cold. About 10 a.m. it cleared up and became much warmer. The racing at Macao was delightful and it was voted a most enjoyable day.
Interest was centered in the 4th race as the Lottery had reached nearly $80,000 with the first prize reaching $34,000. Victoria Hall won this race.

The Ladies' race attracted a lot of interest and it must be admitted that they rode well. The fields were fair, but one wishes that owners would run their horses more as large fields attract a good attendance and make good sport.

CREMATION

ORDINANCE

Amendment Drafted

The "Government Gazette" publishes the draft of a bill to amend the Cremation Ordinance, 1934.

The Objects and Reasons are as follows:

Section 4 of the principal Ordinance, No. 40 of 1934, provided that no place or building shall be used as crematorium other than and except (1) Government crematoria, (2) the Crematoria named in the Schedule, (3)
Crematoria hereafter established with the consent of the Governor notified in the Gazette and (4) buildings or places in respect of which special permission for the use of the same for burning human remains had been granted by the Director of Medical Services.Clause 2 of this Bill amends the fourth exception and adds a new paragraph the joint effect of which is to provide for the permission of the Urban Council in parts of the Colony other than the New Territories.Clause 3 of the Bill makes a consequential amendment in section 5 of the principal Ordinance.Section 6 of the principal Ordinance provided that no crematorium should be constructed within 200 yards of a dwelling house without the consent in writing of the owner, lessee and occupier of such house, or within 50 yards of a public highway without the consent of the Governor in Council, or in the consecrated part of any burial ground.Clause 4 of the Bill repeals this provision but substitutes other provisions, for hearing objections by the Urban Council, with an appeal to the Governor in Council, where a proposed crematorium is to be situated within 200 yards of a dwelling house or 50 yards of a public highway.

Clause 5 of the Bill adds to the Schedule of exempted crematori-o the ground set apart in Sookun-poo for the Hindu Association for the erection of a crematorium.

tempted to take off for Shanghai on November 19 at Kai Tak, had left yesterday and that there were fears that a mishap had occurred to him as he had not yet arrived

It was strange how this rumour was started but at the time stated,

Capt. Cukurs was visiting Mr.

and Mrs. Carl Martens, the German globe-trotters, who are staying at the Kowloon Hotel for a few days prior to their continuing their journey to Hanoi.

The damage to the under-carriage of Capt. Cukurs' plane is so serious that he has ordered fresh parts for its replacement from France. Until its arrival the Latvian airman, will remain in Hong Kong.

ANNUAL REUNION DINNER

Wah Yan Past Students Association

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The Wah Yan Past Students Association held their annual reunion dinner on Saturday night, when about 130 members and guests met at a most successful gathering. It proved to be one of those occasions when old school ties are renewed and old friends meet again. Among those who attended the dinner were Mr. Ko Fook-son (President), Rev. Father Gallagher (Vice-President), Rev. Fr. T. Byrne, Rev. E. Bourke, Rev. D. Donnelly, Rev. T. A. Ryan, Messrs. Peter H. Sin, Chan Yib-shuen, Long Ting-sung, P. A. Dragon, W. A. Youngs, Ian Hot-lan Peter Tsui, Fung Kwok-wan and the staff of the College.

The toast of the evening were: His Holiness Pius XI, The King, The Republic of China, and Our Guests, proposed by the President; The Association, proposed by the Rector; and Wah Yan College, proposed by Mr. Chan Wai-chuen.

REDUCTION OF MEMBERS

In the course of his speech the Father Rector said:—
As I listened, earlier this evening, to the excellent Annual Report of the Association, I was rather surprised to detect a leaning towards a less hopeful note regarding its future. It has been my lot to help either in the founding or reorganisation of some six or seven similar Associations, and I have noticed the same phases of development, in all. When the idea is first mooted there is enthusiasm which evaporates somewhat as the novelty wears off. That evaporation results in the diminution of members for the first year or so, after which the Association or Club settle down with smaller numbers but greater solidity. When it is realised that the Association has come to stay, the numbers once more improve.

The falling-off is not something peculiar to our Association. I have therefore no misgivings. The state of our Association compares more than favourably with the state of those which I know. They seemed at one time to be on point of falling. They have not failed. Neither shall we.

ACTIVITIES PLANNED

The Association has had during the year more activities than most associations can boast. It is our intention during the coming year to make our activities more attractive and have them more systematically organised.

To make such activities a success and thus to make the Association a success, co-operation on the part of the members is necessary.

EMPLOYMENT FOR WAH YAN BOYS

The present time is a very hard one in the Colony, and many of our students have been very hard hit by the prevailing depression. They come to us asking for work. We cannot give it to all, though we have done what we could, but perhaps the Association can.

Members themselves may have vacancies, or they may know of vacancies, of which they might inform the Council, which would in turn pass the information on to us. If the Association were to adopt as its slogan 'Employ Wah Yan' a very close link indeed would be forged with the college which is fitting its students not for a final examination but for life. No boy would be recommended unless the School Authorities honestly believed him to be suitable.

"Let me end with a word of thanks to the Association for the prizes which it has donated to the College, and of congratulation on the spirit it has shown, an earnest of a still finer spirit in the future."

"OUR GUESTS" TOASTED

In proposing the toast of "Our Guests," the President, Mr. Ko Fook-son, said:—
"To our distinguished guests, I extend our heartiest welcome. Indeed, our Association is greatly honoured by your presence tonight."

"We have been hoping to open a free night school for the poor Hong Kong boys and girls. Owing to our financial difficulties we have not started it, but we have not given up this matter. Ladies and gentlemen, what I want to tell you is that we are always attempting to do things that are within the scope of our Constitutions and the reach of our ability. A good school equips the students with education that enables them to do great and useful things in future, and good students may glorify their mother school by the things they do after their graduation. Do you know why Oxford and Cambridge, Harvard and Yale are so famous? Not merely because they are over two hundred or three hundred years old, but because their graduates scatter all over the world, playing important parts in government, education, religion, industry, labour, science and arts. What I intend to emphasise is the important relationship between the authorities of the College and the members of the Association."

HARD-WORKING COUNCIL

"To our fellow members, I extend my thanks for the support and co-operation which I have enjoyed. The Council has been working diligently in planning and directing the various activities, which are successfully participated in by the members. But no matter how hard the Council may work, this institution will not flourish into a really active and permanent organisation without the co-operative support from all past Wah Yan students. Therefore, I earnestly appeal to all Wah Yan old boys to join this Association. I hope our members will continually renew their membership and that all old boys will soon become members. And if the students who just leave school are willing to join us, then the membership will increase from year to year. You have just elected members in the Council. I hope they will, with your assistance, make this Association more active and successful than during the last two years."

THE COLLEGE

In proposing the toast of the College, Mr. Chan Wai-chuen said: "Gentlemen—We are very happy here this evening, not only to unite with one another in a joyful gathering of many old boys of the Wah Yan College, but also to have this opportunity of welcoming to our midst the distinguished company of many guests and teachers of the college. Therefore, the pleasure of the evening is already boundless without counting the privilege of listening to the able speakers, who have just impressed on us the importance of mutual help among all old boys, and warmed our hearts with feelings of true brotherhood at this reunion. They make us proud to be old boys of the College, and therefore, it behoves us to support them by doing all we can in the interests of the Association and the College, all for one, and one for all."

"Our college is in the hands of a very able person, Rev. Fr. Gallagher. Being straightforward and kindhearted he has won the love and respect of the whole Council. His personality is an ideal one in an administrator. Among his subordinate staff he is known to be impartial and helpful always. He is, in fact, an indispensable part of the machinery of the management of the College. In short, as long as the College is in his hands the time must come when our boys will distinguish themselves in many ways."

AN APPEAL FOR SUPPORT

"Before concluding I wish to digress a little, and mention another thing which equally deserves your serious attention. The very premises in which we assemble here so happily do not form part of the assets of the College. That such a big and well-managed institution like our College should be handicapped by the lack of its own building is distressing. Our College can hardly feel permanent security until it has its own premises. Old boys should endorse my appeal, and be ready to give help to their Alma Mater, if called upon. Let us hope that our College will before long have its own building. May our Fr. Rector also have a long term of control of its destinies."

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The election of officers resulted as follows:—
President:—Mr. Ko Fook-son.
Vice Presidents:—Rev. Father R. W. Gallagher and Mr. Chan Wai-chuen.

Feeling "Run Down?"

Just suppose that right now you were talking to a physician.

YOU would have to confess to him that somehow you seem to tire very quickly nowadays; that your energy is gone and that now and then you feel jumpy and irritated.

"My dear man!" he would no doubt say, "look at the symptoms logically. Yours is a clear case of strained nerves. We need not go into how you got that way. The climate, hard and nervous work, late nights, they can all be to blame—but you want to know how to become your old self again. Why not start taking Sanatogen—it's really great stuff! It's made just for people like you, and I know from long experience that it will do you a lot of good. You have asked too much from your nerves, and with Sanatogen you replace the lost energy quickly."

Over 25,000 physicians are of the opinion that taking Sanatogen is the easy and logical way back to real health and vitality. Why not give Sanatogen a trial? Every chemist sells it. Start taking it now, then you will soon notice its remarkable influence on your health and vitality.

NEUTRAL ZONE IN MADRID

Red Cross Effort

Geneva, Nov. 28.
The International Red Cross
Committee, so it is reported from Geneva, has approached the Spanish Red Government and General
Franco with the request of creating a certain zone in Madrid, where the non-combatants may rest with a certain measure of safety from air raids. General Franco has answered by referring to his declaration of November 7, wherein he demands a delimited area as safety zone for non-combatants. The Red Premier, Caballero on the other hand said that, as the entire civilian population was to be considered non-combatants, it was not possible to congregate them in certain areas.
The International Red Cross made another attempt with the Premier, but has received no answer.

Rome, Nov. 28.
The Hungarian Regent, Admiral von Horthy, was received by Pope Pius XI in private audience on Friday. The Regent drove from the Quirinal to the Vatican in six horse-drawn papal carriages, accompanied by his suite. He was received with all traditional pomp awarded to visiting heads of foreign states. After the audience with the Holy Father, Regent Horthy visited the Papal Secretary of State, Cardinal Pacelli, who returned the visit immediately afterwards.

In the course of the audience of Regent Horthy with Pope Pius XI, the Holy Father conferred upon him the highest Papal Order, of the "Golden Spurs" while Premier Darany received the Pius Order. Regent Horthy on his side awarded high Hungarian orders to the papal officials who received him. Frankton News Service.

"THE LAST OF THE MOHICANS"

Few productions in recent screen history have faced as many location difficulties as Reliance's "The Last of the Mohicans," which is currently unrolling on the screen of the King's Theatre, with Randolph Scott, Blinn Barnes and Henry Wilcoxon heading an all-star cast.

First of all, there was the problem of finding a local, as the immortal James Fenimore Cooper classic required virgin territory. And, once found, misfortune seemed to dog the company's footsteps, as no less than six accidents of varying degrees of seriousness were sustained by members of the two location units. The search for an untrammelled setting finally ended in Holcomb Valley, near Big Bear Lake in Northern California, but the approach to the desired location was so difficult, especially for equipment as cumbersome as that used in making pictures, that a trail had to be dynamited. More than 1,000 pounds of the explosive were used in clearing away huge boulders in the path.

"THE BIG BROADCAST OF 1937"

Easily the most delightful pot-pourri of beauty, wit, music, and rhythm offered during the current season, "The Big Broadcast of 1937," which is showing at the Queen's Theatre and Alhambra Theatre simultaneously, bring to the screen a generous helping of the air-wave's most outstanding performers aided by a host of the screen's best entertainers.

Scintillating, gay, timely and often hilariously funny, "The Big Broadcast of 1937," includes Jack Benny, George Burns and Gracie Allen, Bob Burns, Martha Raye, Benny Goodman and his orchestra, Shirley Ross, Ray Milland, Frank Forest, Benny Fields, Leopold Stokowski and his Symphony Orchestra and many other outstanding singers, dancers, musicians, comedians and specialty performers.

The story deals with the romance that blossoms between Miss Ross and Milland when the latter is assigned to trick her off the air by Forest, an orchestra leader, and Benny, the studio manager. She discovers the deception and break with Milland. Gracie Allen, sponsor of a programme, teams her with Forest and they become popular. An air wedding is planned for the two.

"SUZY"

There is deceiving simplicity in the title of the picture, "Suzy," which opened at the Majestic Theatre last night.

Under any other name Jean Harlow, in the title role, would typify the women who, through their love and courage, build empires, cause wars and sometimes, avert them.

The story is based on the novel by Herbert Gorman and George Fitzmaurice directed the picture for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Franchot Tone and Cary Grant appear in the unique narrative as the two husbands of an American show girl stranded in London just before the war.

Miss Harlow unquestionably reaches the high note in her clamorous career as a star

LEAGUE CRICKET

Baxter Gives Kowloon Victory

H.K.C.C. BEAT POLICE

Two surprises featured the Junior League cricket, played on Saturday. The first was Kowloon Cricket Club's handsome victory over the I.R.C. Junior eleven—last year's champions—by nine wickets, and secondly was the poor Police Recreation Club showing against Hong Kong Cricket Club, which was all the more surprising following as it does on their consistently good form for the past few weeks.

The Kowloon Cricket Club's victory may be attributed in no small way to the fine showing of K. M. Baxter who scored 97 before being unfortunately run-out, and who took five wickets for 73 runs. W. Mulcahy scored 69 and with Baxter was associated in a stand of 154 runs.

The Police playing away only scored 52 runs and at one time had lost five wickets for 12 runs!

I.R.C. VANQUISHED

DRAWN MATCH

At Sookunpoo, the Army "B" drew with the Royal Navy.

LADIES' HOCKEY

Champions Again Defeated

CAER CLARK CUP

The Central British Association Ladies, champions of the Caer Clark Cup hockey tournament, suffered another reverse on Saturday afternoon when they were defeated by St. Andrew's Club Ladies by four goals to nil. Miss P. Gittins, the Interporter, registered the "hat trick" and the fourth goal was obtained by Miss M. Roza.

The winners led 1-0 at the interval but in the second half the C.B.A. team collapsed and the Saints collected three further goals.

Miss Olive Peters, at centre-half, and Mrs. Burton, leader of the attack, were outstanding for the losers while Miss J. Wong, Miss P. Wong, Miss J. Booker and Miss Roza played well for the winners.

BRAWN CUP

In the Brawn Cup series, the Diocesan Girls' School defeated the Central British School "B" by three goals to one while the Royal Ulster Rifles Ladies overcame the Royal Welch Fusiliers Ladies by five clear goals.

The Central British School "A" forwards ran riot in their match against the Central British Association juniors scoring no less than 13 goals without reply. Of these, Miss D. McCaw obtained seven, and Miss Andre Martin five.

The Challenge Round of the Hong Kong Hockey Association's Inter-Section Tournament was played on Saturday afternoon between the Argonauta team, winners of the "Civilian" section, and the Hong Kong Singapore Brigade, R.A. representing the Army, and the result was a goalless draw after a most interesting match.

The Portuguese, intermediate line played splendidly E.L. Gosano, in the pivotal position, being outstanding.

The Brigade were without the service of Lieut. Garthwaite, who was ill and his place was taken by Alla Ditta.

The Portuguese goal had a narrow escape in the first half, but Souza brought off a good save. The second period was evenly contested, though both sides had chances of netting.

INDIAN POLICE GUARD GAOLED

Attacked Comprotriot With Chopper

Sher Singh, 52, Indian police guard, of No. 384 Portland Street appeared before Mr. E. I. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday for maliciously wounding Jang Singh, with a chopper. Sentence of four months' hard labour was imposed.

Inspector A. H. Elston said that the complainant would be disgraced for six months. The defendant slashed the complainant when he was asleep in bed. On the day previous to the incident the accused had been drinking heavily as he knew he had no work the next day. While the complainant was asleep the accused went to the kitchen, took a chopper and slashed Jang Singh in the face.

The defendant stated that on November 17 the complainant had been drinking together with him. There was another man with the complainant and both of them he alleged took $8 from him when he was drunk. They also suggested bringing women to the house, but the defendant refused.

"They assaulted me and the next morning the complainant on coming back from work, told me to leave the house. When I asked them to return $8 they threatened to throw me out," he said.

"I was angry so I went in the kitchen and took a chopper and cut him on the face."

Inspector Elston said that the defendant had been a police guard for 51 years but he was unsatisfactory, for he drank a lot. He was also in the police force for some time and his record was good.

His Worship said that attacking a person with a chopper was a serious matter and it was lucky the defendant was not up for murder.

CHOPPER ATTACK

Li Kwong, earth cooler, was brought before Mr. E. H. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday for wounding Tse Fuk with a chopper at Prince Edward Road near Nullah Road on November 26.

Inspector A. H. Elston said that the accused demanded $10 from the complainant, which he refused to give so the accused lay in wait for him. The defendant attacked the complainant with a chopper inflicting three wounds in the back. Sergeant Wear arrested the defendant.

Six months' imprisonment was imposed on the accused.

ASSAULT ALLEGED

Four men appeared before Mr. E. H. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday charged with assaulting Mo Yan, 31, a stone cutter, on November 26.

They were: Wong Kam, 23, Chung Sang, 38, Young Sze, 27, and Lei Fook, 20, all of whom are unemployed stone cutters.

Detective Sergeant MacPerson said that the complainant was still in hospital, and asked for a remand till Monday which was granted.

Bail was fixed at $50.

POSTMAN CHARGED

To Sang, 43, postman No. 20 of the Kowloon Post Office, was brought before Mr. E. H. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday for stealing eight letters, the property of the Post Master General on November 26.

Mr. S. Randle, Superintendent of Mails, was the complainant.

The defendant pleaded guilty. Detective Sergeant Hutchinson said that he had been instructed by the Crown Solicitor to ask for a remand till Tuesday morning in police custody. This was granted.

Bail was fixed at $500.

POSSESSION OF DAGGER

Chan Yau, 27, unemployed watchman, was brought before Mr. E. H. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday for the possession of a dagger.

Inspector A. H. Elston applied for a remand of three days in police custody.

CONVICTED OF THEFT

Boarding House Runner Fined

Wong Yau Nam, 34, boarding house runner, of No. 85 Connaught Road West, was brought before Mr. E. H. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday on remand for the larceny of a purse and unlawfully boarding the s.s. Tjibadak.

The purse was returned to the complainant, Mok Cheong Ming, a passenger of the ship.

Mr. C. Y. Kwan appeared for the defendant and Detective Sergeant Hutchinson, prosecuted.

The first witness, Wong Kam, 34, licensed hawkler said that he was selling on board the s.s. Tjibadak on November 26 at 9 a.m. A friend came to him and said that he saw a man stealing a purse.

They both went after him. The defendant boarded a sampan, it had left the ship for a few feet. When the sampan returned they boarded it, and questioned the defendant. The defendant said, "If you won't arrest me I will take you both to tea."

The second witness stated that he saw the defendant talking to the complainant, and that after a while, he saw his hands coming from the back with a purse in it. The defendant then put on his shoes and boarded a sampan.

The defendant said that he picked up the purse and was about to return it to the owner, and as he could not find the owner, he was about to give it to the captain or the chief officer in order to get a reward, when the two witnesses arrested him. He denied theft.

"When the two witnesses came to me," said the defendant, "they asked me to divide the money in the purse amongst them, but I refused, so they took the purse away from me and handed it to the chief officer, while the first witness was holding me."

Mr. Kwan said that the two witnesses had told a different story and in fact the defendant's story was much more plausible.

His Worship: I find that the defendant is guilty on both charges.

The defendant was twice previously convicted for unlawfully boarding ships.

The defendant was fined $20 or in default two months' hard labour.

EXTRADITION CASE

Chief Detective Inspector J. Murphy informed Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy on Saturday that the Consul for the Netherlands had arranged for the transportation of Liem Tjoe-kwee alias Liem Tjoe-tee, to Samarang, Java for trial.

Liem is wanted by the Dutch East Indian authorities for the alleged theft of jewellery and money to the amount of 3,900 guilders. He had expressed his willingness to return to Java for his trial, and his extradition papers will be made out this afternoon, when he reappears at the Central Magistracy.

In the meantime, he will be held in police custody until the ship sails to-morrow morning.

INDIAN YOUTH IN TROUBLE

Abdul Niamat, 18, an unemployed, was given permission to look for work while he was being held in the House of Detention.

On August 21, he went in search for work as usual but did not return.

Upon his apprehension, he was brought before Mr. K. Keen at the Central Magistracy, and his Worship remanded the case until this morning.

Det.-Sgt. F. Russell informed the Court that defendant had two brothers in the Colony, and his Worship said that he would see one of them before passing sentence.

JAPANESE STOWAWAY

Masso Makaya, 27, Japanese, was brought before Mr. K. Keen at the Central Magistracy on Saturday on charges of entering the Colony without a valid passport on November 27, and for stowing away on the s.s. Kamo Maru from Nagasaki.

Defendant pleaded that he came to Hong Kong to look for work.

He was sentenced to one month in goal for entering the Colony without a passport, and an expulsion order was also made.

MORE PAY FOR JUDGES

£35,000 Increases

Salaries of county court judges and metropolitan magistrates are to be increased, by a total of £35,000 a year under a bill to be introduced by the Government, states the "Daily Telegraph."

A memorandum explaining the financial resolution submitted by the Government, states that the statutory salaries will be raised as follows:

County Court Judges — From £1,650 to £2,000.

Chief Metropolitan Magistrate — From £1,933 to £2,300.

Other Metropolitan Magistrates — From £1,500 to £2,000.

It is proposed at the same time to deal with certain miscellaneous offices, the salaries of which are fixed by statute. The effect in this case, however, will be merely to regularise the existing position and the total remuneration will not be affected.

The salary of a county court judge was fixed at £1,500 in 1885. The chief magistrate's salary was fixed at £1,800, and that of each of the other metropolitan magistrates at £1,500 in 1874. Since 1919 an additional payment has been made from votes in all these cases, bringing the remuneration up to the existing levels.

TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS

The Pedestrian's Point Of View

MR. C. CHAMPKIN'S "SAFETY FIRST" TALK

The last of the series of talks on Safety First was given on Saturday night over ZBW by Mr. C. Champkin, Deputy Superintendent of the Police Reserves.

Saturday saw the closing of Safety First Week, ending one week of intensive instruction by the local Traffic Department, which, with the aid of competent outsiders, did very good work with posters, addresses in public places and over the radio, advertising and films.

Mr. Champkin said:—

The resources of the Hong Kong Police, to whom you are indebted for this present infliction, do seem to cover the possibilities of serving up twice-baked cabbage so disguised with verbiage as to appear with the gloss of novelty. As I don't drive a car, it is not inappropriate that I should present to you the point of view of the unhappy victim of that freedom of opportunity enjoyed by those that do.

LONG-SUFFERING PEDESTRIANS

We pedestrians are long-suffering people. We want only to live and let live. The reckless driver also may be quite content to take life as it comes—but it is too frequently our life that he takes. Because of this, we abandon for one week in the year the dictum that courage, not safety, is the virtue of man and preach to you a gospel founded on a famous slogan that would, I am sure, have caused much hilarity to Nelson, and to Olive. Still we may be sure that the well-meaning inaugurators of this peculiarly-named movement were more concerned with traffic accidents than with empire-adventure.

In the Police Reserve, of course, our interest in traffic problems is mainly philosophic, but we do take a turn of duty now and again and our experience leads us to classify humanity under three headings in what we call our Petty Crash Account:—(a) People who are nimble-witted enough to look after themselves, (b) People who have just about enough intelligence to walk without assistance, (c) Chinese, riding bicycles.

KERB-SIDE ACCIDENTS

Now, the greater number of traffic casualties in this Colony happen within a few feet of the kerb. It is obvious, therefore, that they are due to the fact that the victims stepped into the roadway without first looking in the direction of the oncoming traffic. In some cases they attempted to cross the road in front of a stationary car, parked alongside the pavement, that completely masked their view of other approaching cars.

The worst offenders in this respect are men. Women always look before they leap—but unfortunately they seldom believe what they see. As they always run back to the pavement they are probably responsible for more accidents to motorists than to themselves. If men had less sense of consequences they would probably look after themselves better. If women had more sense of consequences they wouldn't be in hospital so often.

CARELESSNESS

Most accidents occur at street intersections. The main cause, as I have said, is carelessness in stepping into the road. A secondary cause is chattering to a companion, or wandering in one's mind, while crossing the road. Of course, the kind of people that wander in their minds are necessarily limited in their travel by the smallness of their minds. These are the people that forget that the direction of the traffic stream changes when they are half way across. They stray in a long diagonal across a busy street, and they usually carry open umbrellas that blind them to anything not immediately in front of them.

Have you noticed, by the way, the kind of hats the ladies are wearing nowadays? They are worn on one ear and cover completely one side of the face. The blind side is cunningly arranged to be on the right. I daresay some of you have idly wondered why so many women are to be seen walking across the road backwards. The explanation is simple. It's the only way they can see the traffic.

THE OPEN ROADS

These remarks, so far, apply particularly to the Central District. On the highways of the New Territory and the open roads of the Island where there are no pavements you should always walk on the right side of the road to face oncoming cars. At night you may be dazzled by the headlights, but at least the driver can see you and you have longer notice of his approach than you would have if you were on the left side in the case of a car overtaking you. Never cross a road where it curves. Most of our roads bend very sharply and are steeply banked on one side. If you can't see round a corner then don't choose a corner for crossing. It is very difficult to judge the speed of an oncoming car by its headlights and the driver may have other abstraction than keeping clear of you. He may be confused by other approaching lights. Cats have a disconcerting way of darting across the road. If the driver is a woman it is worth while remembering that some women will risk their lives—and all women will cheerfully risk yours—in order to avoid running over a stray cat.

COMMON SENSE, CAUTION AND COURTESY

So you see, on these open roads, especially at night, it is clearly the duty of the pedestrian to look after himself. As a pedestrian he has undoubted rights. He may exercise them or not. The motorist equally has undoubted obligations. He may, or may not, remember them. Common sense, caution and courtesy are the only safe guides to conduct on the open road. It's surprising how very inconclusive established rights and legal obligations appear when you wake up in hospital.

As for Chinese riding bicycles, they are a menace to the public safety. I can only say that they mesmerize me into inertia. Whenever I see one I tell my driver to park the car till he is completely out of sight—and the best advice I can give you is to do the same.

The motorist's first problem is one of speed. It is impossible to lay down any hard and fast rule as to what is excessive speed. It depends so much on circumstances, and the temperament, skill and intelligence of the driver, but I think the tendency always is to drive too fast. Motorists have two inalienable rights—and they must renounce one of them. They have the rights of security and of liberty—the security that comes from careful driving at a reasonable speed, and the liberty to keep a rendezvous with death.

Any dealer will tell you that it is useless trying to sell any kind of car in Hong Kong without an assurance that it will 'touch seventy.' Few people, I imagine, want to 'touch seventy' but so many drivers suffer from elephantiasis of the ego that there will always be those anxious to emulate the small boy in 'Pickwick' who ate sixpenny-worth of muffins—not because he wanted to but simply to show that it could be done. It may be said that, as I don't drive myself, it's not my business to deprecate the reckless effervescence of those that do; but in this matter of senseless speeding I have neither the aptitude nor the inclination to 'mind my own business.'

FORTY MILES AN HOUR

Let us consider what we may call the 'danger zone' at a speed of forty miles an hour, which I think it will be admitted is not unusual on an open road. Psychologists tell us that the mental reaction of the average man to a sense of danger takes three-quarters of a second. Therefore, if you see trouble ahead, you will have travelled 44 feet towards it before it will occur to you to apply your brakes. The average car, travelling at forty miles an hour cannot possibly come to a standstill in less than one and a half seconds, and during that time you will have travelled another 88 feet—that is, if your brakes are in perfect order, which they very frequently are not. So there is a danger zone of 132 feet, within which you are bound to hit something if it is stationary and blocking the road. Within that zone you are risking your life. That, after all, is your own affair—but you may be risking also the lives of others.

Those of you that have mathematical minds may calculate

CHURCH PARADE

Scottish Company's Smart Turnout

The annual Church Parade service of the Scottish Company of the Hong Kong Volunteer Defence Corps, was held yesterday at the Union Church, Kennedy Road. The company, with their bagpipers in full regalia made an impressive sight as they marched from Headquarters, up Garden Road, and along Kennedy Road.

There was a smart turnout under the command of Captain Forsyth, Officer Commanding the Scottish Company. Lt.-Col. R. C. B. Anderson, M.C., Commandant of the H.K.V.D. Corps also attended the service.

The Rev. Mackenzie Dow, Minister of the Union Church preached an interesting sermon. At the termination of the service, the Scottish Company marched down to Headquarters where an enjoyable "At-Home" was held. Many friends of the company attending.

WHIST DRIVE

At the fortnightly whist drive of the Craigengower Cricket Club on Saturday, Miss Calman, Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Locke won the Ladies' prizes, and Messrs. Allen, Howard and Williams were the successful gentlemen.

R.E.O.C.A. DANCE

The Royal Engineers' Old Comrades' Association held their fortnightly dance at the Peninsula Hotel Roof Garden on Saturday evening when nearly 300 people were present.

Dance music was provided by the "Sembré" Dance Orchestra. M.S.M. H. Harrison, R.E. was Master of Ceremonies.

SALE OF WORK

One of the features of a sale of work being held at the St. John's Cathedral Hall on December 10, at 11 a.m., will be a real Woolworth stall. Household articles, Christmas gifts and cards, home produce and knitted goods will also be offered at extremely reasonable prices.

POLICE MARRIAGE

At John's Cathedral on Saturday afternoon the wedding was solemnized between Sergeant G. Taylor, of the Hong Kong Police Force, and Miss Ina Durrant. The bride was given away by Acting Sub-Inspector W. N. Darkin while Sergeant O. Bowers discharged the duties of best man. Many friends of the happy couple attended the ceremony.

for yourselves the force of impact if the source of danger is not stationary, but is approaching you at the same speed as your own. A hundred and thirty two feet is a long way to travel in imminent danger, and two and a quarter seconds is a short time to guard against it. Confucius said "Those whose care extends not far ahead will find their troubles near at hand."

NIGHT DRIVING

Remember when driving at night the blind spot at every turning. Your steering wheel is not geared to your headlights and you are blind to the road until your lights come into alignment with your car. There are so many sharp corners and hairpin bends on our hill roads that these blind spots are a real danger.

It should be gratuitous for me to remind you of the rules for passing on curves, crests of hills and narrow roads—of the dangers of 'cutting in' and of cutting corners and of failing to give the right of way; but I would like to remind you that the safest and sanest driving is not fool-proof against the fool in the other car. If you are on a main road you have the right of way at crossroads, but it doesn't profit you much to reflect that the fool that crashed into you from a side street thought the right of way was his. So it's much better to slow down at crossroads in the expectation of finding a fool at every one of them.

THE DRINKER

Finally, in this sober-minded community it is perhaps unnecessary for me to add that the man who boasts that he can drink anything not thick enough to eat ought not to be allowed to drive at all.

No traffic regulations nor any rules of right can ever supersede the elementary obligations of prudence, good sense and consideration for others that should govern the conduct of all that use the road.

HONG KONG RIFLE ASSOCIATION

MATCH BETWEEN TWO AFFILIATED RIFLE CLUBS

Large Number Attending Annual Dinner Next Tuesday

Owing, once again, to the restricted target accommodation available at week-ends, it was not possible to hold the ordinary Spoon Shoot on the Naval Range at Stonecutters on Saturday afternoon as the number of targets which could be used by the Association only permitted of a match being fired between the "Bisley" Club of the 1st Bn. Royal Ulster Rifles and the Rifle Club of the Fourth Submarine Flotilla. It was, however, found possible to provide accommodation for a few members of the Volunteer Forces of the Colony but the fact remains that with the exception of those firing in the match above referred to, not one single member of the Regular Army had an opportunity of shooting had he wished to do so.

As far as the match is concerned, the teams consisted of eight members of each club, four of whom shot with the "1914" rifle and other four with the rifle "as issued" and the detailed scores given below demonstrate the increased accuracy produced by the use of the aperture-sight and sling. In the case of the Battalion "Bisley" Club those firing with the S.R. (b) weapon scored 47 points more than did the remainder of the team who were using the S.R. (a) rifle, while the corresponding figures for the Flotilla Rifle Club showed an even greater discrepancy, as those using the "1914" rifle had a lead of no less than 67 points over the aggregate made by the remainder of the team.

The result was a win for the Battalion "Bisley" Club by 25 points, a close finish which undoubtedly added to the enjoyment of the match. The outstanding scorers were Lieut. Ratcliffe and Sgt. Rattenbury of the Battalion who made scores of 98 and 97 respectively, and Lieut. (E) Berlyn and A.B. Bowerman of the Flotilla Rifle Club who scored 98 and 95 each. The highest score made by either team with the S.R. (a) rifle was

RE-ARMAMENT
PROGRESS

Sir Thomas Inskip made the claim a fortnight ago that by the new organisation at the War Office the nucleus of a Ministry of Supply had already been created, but he deprecated going any further at the present time towards creating a Ministry of Munitions. He based his hesitation on the ground that the financial strain would be stupendous, and that it would be difficult to stop once the Government began to turn the country into a vast munition camp.

That plea is sound provided, but only provided, that the needs of Defence are satisfied. As everyone knows, there are minima and maxima in these matters, and the fear is that when Sir Thomas Inskip can only say that he is "reasonably satisfied" even the minima have not been attained.

Those who study his statement must feel that he is at present immersed in vital details of supply which can leave him no adequate time for the totally different and major problems of co-ordination which led to the creation of his office. They are not only different: they are new, they are extremely complex and delicate, and at once highly theoretical and of the utmost practical consequence in their application.

At the present time the British public is thinking of Defence problems mainly in terms of the Air, and it will certainly be gratified to learn that recruiting for the Air Force is entirely satisfactory. While the number of fighting aeroplanes could not be stated, the Minister said that "new squadrons are continually being formed," and that they now number 80 at home, including 16 auxiliary squadrons, while the programme includes large provision for reserves.

Moreover, in a reference to the recent unhappy controversy with Lord Nuffield, Sir Thomas gave a renewed assurance that a much-extended use would be made of his great organisation and experience, and he added that "in war time, and perhaps even before war time," the six factories in the Shadow Scheme would "go over to complete war production." Next year, we are told, the output already begun will extend on an increasing scale up to 1939 or 1940, and he gave cogent reasons why he could not permit the organisation of the supply of any design

KIANGSI RECONSTRUCTION

Church Enthusiastically Supports
Initiative Of Gen. And Mme.
Chiang Kai-shek

(BY THE REV. G. W. SHEPHERD)

In the spring, summer and autumn of 1933, when the communists were still in control of large sections of Kiangsi and Fukien, the Church was asked to propose a plan whereby Christian resources of men and funds might be utilized, first in relief, and later in reconstruction of the broken communities emerging from the war torn areas.

A plan of work was accepted by the Ad Interim Committee of the National Christian Council meeting at Nanchang in November of that year. Gen. and Mme. Chiang Kai-shek pledged one half of the budget on condition that others subscribe the balance, states the "N. C. Daily News."

The Kiangsi Christian Rural Service Union was immediately organized and work started at Lichwan, even though the communists and government armies were still engaged in deadly conflict. Young men and women from Christian colleges and institutions volunteered for service on a very low salary basis and a fairly comprehensive programme of rural reconstruction was undertaken.

The Kiangsi Provincial Government offered its wholehearted co-operation, and eventually appointed a member of the Lichwan staff as the (Chu Chang) official in charge of that district. From start to finish, the provincial government has lived up to its agreement and as its resources have increased and the departments of government have become more efficient, this co-operation has proven to be one of the most substantial factors in the success of the experiment.

OVERCOMING HANDICAPS

There have been many problems, but the unwavering determination of Gen. and Mme. Chiang, and of Governor Hsiung and his commissioners, to once and for all rid Kiangsi of its social and economic handicaps, has driven underground most of the opposition and created an atmosphere in which all centres of rural reconstruction might move forward.

A few months after the organization of the K.C.R.S.U. the National Economic Council established welfare centres in various parts of the province and these have greatly influenced both government and people in their struggle toward better living conditions.

The New Life Movement, conceived and inaugurated by Gen. and Mme. Chiang Kai-shek as a means of remoulding China's spiritual and material life, had its origin in these war torn villages. It existed for months before it was clearly defined and given a name. Now it is universally acclaimed as embodying the desire of the people for the modernization and social regeneration of China as thoroughly and as rapidly as possible.

Many of these responsibilities and functions, concerned with the welfare of the people, first assumed at Lichwan, have since been taken over by other welfare centres, and by the properly constituted organs of government. Naturally, the question arises as to the future usefulness of Lichwan.

A close relationship with the Church has given Lichwan some slight distinction, but generally speaking it has carried on the same kind of work as the other which had not been fully tested and proved. It is not any want of confidence in the Minister which will lead many to regard 1940 as a rather distant date, considering the pace at which the modern world is moving.

Britain has been driven into rearmament most reluctantly, it is true, but as that reluctance was overcome by sheer necessity the nation looks to Ministers to forget altogether the reluctance with which they entered on this new course until they reach the point of safety. Sir Thomas Inskip earnestly disclaimed the belief that war was inevitable or even probable. But throughout the speech was the conviction that Great Britain must organize her defences as if it were and that the surest hope of its avoidance lay in Great Britain being the strong man fully armed.

dozen rural welfare centres within the province. It has met the crying needs of the hour through all manner of service in the spirit of Christ.

FARMERS WELL SATISFIED
Throughout the province more than two years of peace have brought the farming communities what seems like prosperity compared with the predicament, and the poverty of previous years. The farmers say that they have the best government they have ever had. That should be sufficient proof for the most sceptical.

Education, health, agriculture, transportation, city and village planning, co-operatives and financial stability have all followed in rapid succession, and are constantly being adjusted to the needs of the new day. Training in self-defence has about rid the province of bandits and disorderly soldiers.

Governor Hsiung is just inaugurating an ambitious scheme, financed locally, for the social education of women. This vast undertaking and its beginnings in Lichwan. The Kiangsi Christian Rural Service Union was the first centre in Kiangsi to prove that college trained women are qualified and ready to serve their sisters in the villages.

What one college trained woman, accompanied by a registered public health nurse, can do for the women of the villages, is beyond the scope of this article, but it reads like a fairy tale. Mme. Chiang, as President of the Kiangsi Christian Rural Service Union, has strongly emphasized the needs of women and the home.

HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS PROVINCE

After three years of work it is perhaps not too early to estimate the influence of this "first on the Kiangsi firing line" rural service centre. That the Board of Directors and the field staff have carried out all that its founders, Gen. and Mme. Chiang, intended, is to be found in the fact that as a result of this and other great movements within the province, Kiangsi is now a happier and more prosperous place for its millions of farmers and workers. The board asserts:

We have relieved suffering and helped to rebuild broken lives, families and homes.

We have discovered that college trained and well educated men and women are ready to suffer hardships and poverty in order to lift their fellow-countrymen to higher standards of living.

We have defeated Communism with its own weapons and won the people of these recovered areas back to the National Government through convincing ourselves with the well being of the farmers and their families.

We have proven that the royal road to reconstruction is not through the multiplication of rural welfare centres, but through applying these principles of service to the regular channels of government.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR THE CHURCH

Peace, stability, rapidly improving economic conditions, a wider distribution of knowledge made possible by the railroads and the highways, and a refreshing return to the old spirit of friendliness, which Communism had destroyed, these offer the Church and other social agencies opportunities for service unparalleled in the history of the Republic. We are happy to see the task of material reconstruction well under way, and mighty spiritual forces released to continue their work throughout the nation.

Since the Lichwan project was created to assist in one of the major struggles in Chinese history its influence has been nationwide. Here the church was definitely challenged to choose between the theories of Marx and Lenin, and a new social order based upon a synthesis of the ancient foundations of China and the social principles of Christianity. As a result of that choice Protestant and Catholic churches to-day have the good will of the people.

SOCIAL PASSION OF THE WORKERS
The spirit of sacrifice, and the social passion of the young men and women who commenced their activities before the smoke of battle had rolled away, have now become a part of China's tradition. As requested by China's leaders, a Communist recovered area, they have brought justice and

KILTS: BAGPIPES!! HAGGIS!!

Quite frankly, the St. Andrew's annual ball at the Peninsula was such a bewildering affair that I simply can't collect my thoughts in any sort of logical sequence to convey from start to finish all the splendour and jollity of that really delightful occasion.

A full and formal report of the proceedings was published in the "Daily Press" on the following day—and what a day it must have been for some of the gaudy folk who danced those reels with a vigour, both vocal and physical, as amazing as fascinating! I'd just love to do an "eightsome," but from what I could judge one must be swathed in tartan from the first moment one enters this world before all the intricacies of steps and gestures could become as easy as drawing a cork—for the dancers in the various sets at this ball executed the many figures with such ease and grace that it must have taken years of practice. I was told they do rehearse a lot.

I've given this heading with marks of exclamation, and that was just how the ball impressed me.

Is there anything so fascinating as the "waggle o' the kilt"? But here again, a kilt, like a reel, must appear like second nature, otherwise it loses half its splendour. Many there did look the part, and no mistake.

Then the bagpipes. No wonder the Highlanders simply rushed into action with such stirring music throbbing in their ears. And no wonder the enemy fled, mainly. I have no doubt, on account of the Highlanders, but I should imagine that the bagpipes contributed in some measure to their fear. In even a very big hall they can sound exceedingly near. I have always held the opinion that with the bagpipes, distance does definitely lend enchantment. However, at the Peninsula on this famous night it would have been nothing without those bagpipes.

Haggis. Some enthusiastic Scot has deftly described it as "cupid's stomach!" A picturesque if somewhat inelegant description. With a little liqueur whisky it tasted all that the Scots would have their friends believe it to be, and I was assured by one whose accent was anything but assumed, that it was equity into human relations, and given men, women and children, the freedom to enjoy beauty, to follow truth, and to achieve goodness.

Some of them are now serving in the larger crusade, under the banner of the New Life Movement, which is China's answer to Communism and to the needs of all her people, embodying the Christian approach to the economic and social life of China.

The work at Lichwan is infinitely unfinished. It is a small beginning where East and West together have been given a chance to think over "the shape of things to come." As Basil Matthews says, "Those who wish to do such things in the light of the teachings of Jesus Christ are going to meet real hazards and encounter subtle devilries."

This has already proven to be true, nevertheless, the Spirit of the Lord God has been upon us encouraging the depressed, binding up the broken hearted, showing a new and Christian way to the poor, setting at liberty those that are bound, wiping out class hatred and differences of race, binding men together in one great brotherhood of love.

THE CHURCH AT WORK
We are the Church at work in one of the needy fields of the world. We have succeeded not merely in making gains of a social, economic and political nature, but in maintaining that real progress lies in the direction of standing steadfastly by the spiritual and moral code of the Christian faith.

"I doubt," says a Christian statesman, "if there is any greater need than the training of rural-minded men and women, who will go to an area and build there a rural civilization, Christian to the core, where person will know the Jesus who taught peasants by parables, and where children will be taught to integrate their knowledge to daily life and to grappling with its problems; and the rural church will be linked up with the home, the fields, the co-operative, the government and the health clinic, as well with Christians across the world." This part of Lichwan's programme remains unfinished.

HOTEL GAITIES

St. Andrew's Ball at the Peninsula Hotel rather quietened down the Hotel for Saturday night although both the Hong Kong and the Gloucester were full—but not quite the usual large Saturday night crowd.

Dancing continued in the Roof Garden till 3 a.m. which was full up to the end. Capt. and Mrs. Coltart arrived later in the evening and joined the Fuller's party which included Mrs. Paddfield, who has just arrived from England. She was looking most attractive in grey and dark purple.

Mrs. Clough-Taylor in black with diamonds' shoulder strap also arrived later with her husband and joined the Fuller's.

The Cavanagh Mainwaring were in a party which included Rosalie Alabaster and Ian MacGregor. Mrs. Davies in black net was very pretty. Miss McLeay also chose black which suited her very well.

Mrs. Jenks was in a large party in the Roof Garden and was most striking in a black dress with long sleeves and a small train. Ann and Diana Dodwell were in a party together, both looking very nice.

The Hong Kong Hotel is determined to have a gay Xmas. They are already advertising their gala nights and various attractions, which appear to be very gay and are sure to draw large crowds.

MEDICAL SCHOOLS
IN CHINALack Of Properly
Trained TeachersFINANCIAL
STRINGENCY

Nanking:

In spite of efforts exerted by educators in the medical field none too rosy a picture can be painted of the progress of medical education during recent years.

Of the total of 27 medical schools in China most are in stringent financial conditions and are in lack of proper trained staff and of teaching facilities.

This is revealed in a report of the Commission on Medical Education under the Ministry of Education after a thorough investigation of various medical schools in the country as a preliminary step toward mapping out a new programme for medical education with the realization of state medicine in view.

There are altogether 27 medical schools in the country. Six are national, 7 are provincial and 14 are private. Of the 27 medical schools, 19 are colleges, 10 of which are parts of universities while the other 9 are independent. There are 6 technical schools, of which 1 belongs to the National Army and 4 to the provinces, while the remaining 1 is a special department of a university. The other 2 of the 27 schools are departments in dependent colleges.

The lack of properly trained teachers of medicine, the report points out, constitutes another impediment to the progress of medical education. With the exception of one or two colleges, practically all of the medical colleges and schools have not yet been able to secure a well-balanced staff of high quality.

MOST POWERFUL NAVY IN THE WORLD

RUSSIAN ADMIRAL'S RECOMMENDATIONS

To Meet Threats Of Japan And Germany

Moscow, November 28. The threatening attitude of Japan and Germany compels the Soviet Union to build the most powerful navy in the world. This is the declaration made by Admiral Orloff, chief of the naval forces of the U.S.S.R., speaking at the All-Union Soviet congress.

Urging the necessity for constructing the world's biggest fleet, Admiral Orloff pointed out that Germany was completing the construction of 37 warships, 15 cruisers and hundreds of aircraft carriers, minelayers and submarines.

SOVIET FLEET INCREASES

Since 1933, Admiral Orloff reported, the Soviet fleet has been increased as follows: Submarines, increased seven-fold, warships three-fold, the artillery increase has been 75 per cent, aircraft defences have been doubled, and the naval air force increased five-fold.

The Pacific and Baltic submarine fleets, he stated, were now faster and able to remain submerged much longer than any other craft in the world.

Admiral Orloff concluded with the statement: "They are ready to annihilate any enemy daring to approach our coast."

LARGER FRENCH NAVY

Council Summoned To Discuss Question

Paris, Nov. 27. The Higher Naval Council is being summoned to discuss the question of building a larger French navy. The decision was revealed at a meeting of the Finance Commission of the Chamber yesterday, at which M. Du Parc, the Minister of Marine, expressed the opinion that the tonnage of the French fleet at 630,000 tons was insufficient in relation to that of neighbouring foreign fleets. The Minister informed the Commission of the methods to be employed to hasten the completion of the cruisers Dunkerque and Strasbourg.

M. Candace, rapporteur of the naval budget, gave an account of the international naval situation, showing that the big Powers were undertaking construction on a big scale in the minimum time, while France alone was carrying out a programme based on the clauses of the Treaty of Versailles and would soon drop from fourth to sixth place among the naval Powers.

Rome, Nov. 28. The deliberations between the heads of the Hungarian and Italian states, which were carried on during the last few days, were concluded on Thursday. BITTER ATTACK ON NAZIS

Defiant Speech By Litvinoff

ITALY'S OFFER TO JAPAN

Moscow, Nov. 29. M. Maxim Litvinoff, in a defiant speech at the congress of the Soviets in the Kremlin, declared that the secret Japanese-German military alliance was the result of fifteen months' negotiations.

He had learned from most reliable sources that Italy offered Japan a similar pact, and said that Signor Mussolini saw fit to do so as a retort to the Soviets' loyal opposition within the League of Nations.

M. Litvinoff asserted that he had perfect confidence in the ability of the Soviet to withstand single-handed any enemy or combination of enemies, but the Soviet at the same time will continue to strive for peace and not seek to enter a bloc or combination of nations. The Soviet would wait tranquilly for other states to judge the value of the benefits to be derived in the interests of peace from collaboration with her.

Blatantly attacking the Nazis who he said, did not seem troubled in conscience over the fact that their ally, Franco, was leading non-aryan Moroccans in the barbaric fight against pure-blooded Spanish arians, M. Litvinoff ridiculed the allegation that Russia sought to establish Communism in Spain and thus enable her to join the Union of the Soviets.

POST OFFICE BUSINESS

London, Nov. 28. The activities of the Post Office enter so closely and at so many points into the complex business relations that the movement of Post Office business provides a sensitive index of commercial conditions generally. It is noteworthy therefore that the steady growth of recent years was continued during the last Post Office year for which figures are now available.

The total value of transactions with the public in 1935-6 was of the order of £901,000,000, an increase of about £40,000,000 over the previous year. Letter mails reached a new high record, and parcels also showed marked increase. Inland telegrams, after years of steady decline, reacted to the reduced tariff introduced in May 1935 and rose to 444 millions compared with 354 millions in the year before. Telephone business further accelerated its growth. Money Orders showed a small increase, and the issue of Postal Orders was a high record at over 311 millions with approximate value of £81,000,000. Savings Bank balances reached record figures of £390,000,000.

Increased sales of unemployment and health insurance stamps reflected the growth of the number of persons in employment.

TRIBAL CLASH IN INDIA

Caused By Agitation Over A Girl

New Delhi, Nov. 28. The casualties in the Waziristan fighting are 20 killed and 88 wounded. British squadrons co-operated with the infantry in dealing with the trouble.

The clash originated in the alleged kidnapping from Bannu last year of a fourteen-year-old girl whom the High Court subsequently ordered to be returned to her parents. The Muslims, led by an obscure fanatical young faquir, agitated and stirred up trouble on grounds that the girl voluntarily left home for conversion to the Islam faith. The Government then took action and the faquir took refuge in tribal territory. It is believed that the girl is now living with some other people and her whereabouts is not known.

It is learned that additional casualties are Captain J. R. H. Peacock of the 6/13th Frontier Force Rifles and ten Indian sepoy, all wounded.

The only British regiment participating is the 1st battalion Northamptonshire Regiment.

DOCKWORKERS ACT IN SYMPATHY

(Hong Kong Daily Press Special)

Paris, Nov. 28.

The situation created by the American and French dockworkers' strike assumed international diplomatic importance when the American ambassador in Paris Mr. Bullitt, called on the French Foreign Minister, M. Delbos, on Saturday in connection with the refusal of dockworkers in various French harbours to unload American ships out of a feeling of solidarity with the striking comrades in America.

As a retaliatory measure against this action, American dockworkers, who are not striking, refused to unload French boats in America with the result that the situation is threatening to become serious.

The result of the conference is not revealed. No solution has yet been found agreeable to the striking dockworkers here, although Premier Blum received a delegation from Bordeaux on Saturday and heard their demands.

In the meantime, dockworkers in Nantes have gone on strike for the reasons of solidarity with their Bordeaux comrades.

ADVANCE HELD UP

Valencia, Nov. 29.

A semi-official review of operations confirms the earlier indications that the insurgents are being forced to alter dispositions in order to meet various loyalist threats.

The rebels have not advanced a single step northwest of Madrid, says a statement. According to the Madrid junta, the enemy is weakening as the Moors are no longer able to act and shock troops are being replaced by volunteers. At present bad weather has caused a lull in all operations round the capital. No shot was heard last night and the rain continues to pour.

They lack the finish of Moorish regulars and they are a wild lot picturesque and variously dressed in an assortment of desert robes and khaki, and carrying their belongings in little bundles.

There are at present indications that the insurgents are preparing to resume the initiative against Madrid as soon as the weather permits. Artillery battering was kept up intermittently on all sectors, the loyalists replying in copious measure.

POLICE SHOW REVIVED FORM

GIVE SOUTH CHINA "A" BIG FRIGHT—BUT LOSE!

Navy Beats Rifles

BY "VOX POPULI"

The Police look as if they are going to do great things in the soccer world before long. This statement is a trifle ambiguous as they have already done a great thing when they defeated the East Lancashire in the shield game last week. However what I mean to say is that it was no flash in the pan. Yesterday they gave South China "A" the fright of their lives, and the Chinese must have considered themselves lucky to leave the ground with points in their bag. For the Police dominated matters for most of the second half—but score, no!

In the other two premier league games, South China "B" (termed the luckless side in Division 1) defeated the Kowloon Chinese by two goals to one, and the Rifles bowed down to the Royal Navy by a goal to nil.

NAVY DOWN RIFLES

Before a very moderate crowd, yesterday, the Royal Navy defeated the Rifles by a goal to nil in their premier league encounter. The play was of an excellent standard, both teams at times playing sparkling football. Although the Navy obtained that which counts most in football, the winning goal, at does not mean to say that the win was fully deserved. The truth of the matter is they were very lucky. McGonkall was a notable absentee from the Rifles defence, his position at right half being taken by McAuley, a newcomer from the second eleven. In the last line of the navy, Harris, the right back, was displaced by Telfer, also a newcomer from the second division. Referee Ip lined up the following teams at 4.15 sharp.

Royal Navy—Cocker, Telfer, Wolverson, Lusher, Bower, Gardner, Baxter, Muirhead, McLeod, Wride and Tippet.

R. U. R.—Connor, Pickering, Stevens, McAuley, Moore, Miller, Irwin, Campbell, Ferguson, Doherty and Killen.

The Rifles won the toss and took advantage of the "climate" conditions by setting the Navy to face a strong sun. Rifles started off the attack and Telfer and Wolverson had all their work cut out to defend against a strong combination. A marvellous first time effort by Ferguson rebounded from the cross bar—a narrow squeak for the Navy. Gradually the pressure eased up, however, and soon the Navy had a turn of attack. Again the Rifles had an in-lining and Ferguson, Doherty and Killen became prominent on the left.

BAXTER SCORES

Baxter scored the play once more and the Navy forced a corner, which, however, proved abortive. At the other end some really brilliant head work by Ferguson came to naught as Cocker was on his guard and could not be caught napping. In the first twenty minutes of the game, Baxter scored for the Navy with a fierce drive from twenty yards out which left Connor impotent. A few seconds later, Connor gained vociferous applause from the crowd for a splendid save.

Half-time—R. Navy 1 Goal, R.U.R. 0.

Eight from the re-start, the Rifles attacked and their forceful tactics clearly had their opponents nonplussed. Good tackling by their backs was now a feature of the play, but their passes to the forwards was sadly lacking in precision and accuracy. A changing wind caused a nice effort by Campbell to go past. At the other end, a good try by Tippet, the Naval outside left was cleverly brought to earth by Connor.

MID-FIELD PLAY

From now onwards, the tussle was fought out in mid-field, both teams taking a turn at attacking. A long shot from Moore rebounded from the cross bar and Irwin had hard luck in a long drive from the right wing. In a few seconds the same player sent in a centre which Ferguson took with his head but had the mortification of seeing Cocker save gracefully. The game still continued to be a ding-dong affair, neither side gaining ground and the final whistle blew with the Navy still leading.

Full-time—R. Navy 1 Goal, R.U.R. 0.

COMMENT

If it had not been for the sterling defence of the Rifles' two backs, the score might possibly have been much larger for the Navy as the Rifles fell considerably below previous form. What is wrong with the Rifles? Is the question that is being asked repeatedly? There is one solution at any rate. A few weeks ago Campbell, the big man in the Rifles' team sustained an injury from which he has not yet recovered. This player is badly needed in the Rifles' team, otherwise he deserves a much needed rest.

Ferguson played his usual sparkling game but misfortune seemed to dog his footsteps time after time. Irwin too was his usual self but bad distribution of the ball kept him practically starved on the right wing. Moore also played up to form.

Tippet for the Navy was unfortunate enough to receive an injury in the first half which necessitated his retreat for a few minutes and did not improve his form.

Wolverson was a tower of strength and showed his enormous strength with some very hefty drives. Behind him in goal, Cocker was very safe and showed much improved form from last week.

Perhaps on the run of the game Rifles scarcely deserved to be in arrears. Personally speaking, a draw would have been a more fitting result to a well contested game.

S. CHINA "B" LUCKY

Quite a large crowd turned up at the Club Ground yesterday afternoon to witness what promised to be a keen struggle between the unbeaten South China "B" and Kowloon Chinese.

They were not disappointed as the game turned out to be a very exciting encounter. Had Kowloon Chinese taken full advantage of their many opportunities the result might have been different. After having most of the play during the first half they seemed to lapse during the opening minutes of the second half, when South China "B" scored two quick goals, per Yeung Sul-yick, one of which was a penalty.

THE GAME

South China "B" won the toss and immediately their forwards broke away in a rush which ended in Yeung Sul-yick sending a high shot over the bar. From the goal kick the Kowloon Chinese forwards got possession and Wong Wing-hong sent in a rasping shot which Wong Wah-kai saved on his knees. For a period Kowloon harassed the South China goalkeeper, whose saving was brilliant. Still pressing hard Lai Kwok-chiu gave a neat pass to Chau Man-chi whose shot went narrowly past the upright. Still pressing the Kowloon right wing forced a corner which was placed perfectly to Lau Chung-sung whose brilliant header went inches past the upright.

South China retaliated and forced a corner on the left which was cleared by Mak Sul-hon. Except for an occasional breakaway, South China were rarely dangerous. Another good opportunity was missed by Kowloon when Tang Kwong-san gave his inside partner a perfect through pass, but to the surprise of the crowd he failed to take advantage of it.

During a South China break-away Yeung Sul-yick sent in a good shot which was well saved by Wong Cheung. At the other end Chau Man-chi was judged to be fouled by Lam Tak-po, and from the resultant kick Lai Kwok-chiu sent in a lobbing shot from 35 yards out, which beat the South China goalkeeper, only to see Wong Wing-hong blow up for offside. From this stage until half-time Kowloon forwards peppered Wong Wah-kai with shots but he seemed unpeppable. Half time arrived with the score sheet blank.

SECOND HALF

Right from the start of the second half South China "B" took control of the game and Yeung Sul-yick broke away on the right and sent in a beautiful screw shot

HOCKEY FIASCO

Players Fail To Make Appearances

TRIAL GAME

A Civilian hockey trial match took place yesterday morning at the Club ground, when the Whites beat the Colours by two clear goals. The game was badly supported, most of the players failing to make an appearance. One actually turned up and said he had to play tennis! Several reserves were called in at the last moment.

The selectors are endeavouring to select a side to meet the Services.

which the Kowloon goalkeeper touched but failed to hold.

Still pressing South China were awarded a penalty which was converted by Yeung Sul-yick. After this period Kowloon took command of the game but their luck seemed out.

Eventually Kowloon were awarded a free kick for an alleged foul on Chau Man-chi and Lai Kwok-chiu scored from almost 40 yards out, with a great shot.

The game was a needle affair after this goal but Kowloon could not secure the equaliser. Just on full time South China forced a corner which was sent behind. A very exciting game ended with the score 2-1 in favour of South China "B", who must count themselves very lucky in claiming both points.

Teams:
South China "B"—Wong Wah-kai; Leung Yin-chin, Ching Ching-yung; Yeung Pun-hon, Lam Tak-po, Tong Kwai; Yeung Sul-yick, Ng Po-kui, Chan Tak-fai, Chak Shai-kam, Li Shai-yau.
Kowloon Chinese—Wong Cheung; Mak Sul-hon, Kwok Ping-chung; Ho Choi-yin, Lai Kwok-chiu, Chan Hung-kwong; Tang Kwong-san, Lau Chung-sung, Wong Wing-hong, Chau Man-chi, Fung King-yu—Referee: Isley.

SOUTH CHINA "A" SURPRISED
Showing the form that surprised the East Lancashire Regiment in the first round of the Shield last week, the Police played a brand of football yesterday against South China "A" on the Kowloon F.C. ground that deserved better luck than defeat, for they were all over the Chinese for the majority of the second half.

However, as it was bowed down to South China by a goal to nil. The result speaks for itself.

Tam Kong-pak was responsible for the Chinese sole point which was obtained early in the first half.

The second half saw the Police fighting back gamely but their forwards could not finish off the splendid mid-field play and approach work. They harassed a hard worked South China defence but the equaliser ever eluded them.

On the run of play, the Police should have won by three goals to one.

CLUB SPRINGS A SURPRISE

Surprising even their own supporters who expected the redoubtable South China "A" to make "mince meat" out of their team, the Club inflicted upon the Chinese eleven their first defeat of the season in their Senior League fixture played at Caroline Hill on Saturday. The Club's deserving win came about as the result of a late goal obtained six minutes before the end of the game.

Although the Club started the game under the handicap of a big injured list, they proved themselves fully able to surmount such a stiff hurdle as the South China "A". Saturday's side, which was a depleted one, was weakened by the absence of Forrow, Bickford, Drown and Ernie Strange, but it did not stop the winners from crashing their way through to victory.

The Club defence played inspired football and it was due to the magnificent efforts of the rearguard trio that they were able to collect the maximum points from the League champions. The Chinese played inferior football owing to their bad tactics and though they had enough of the

LOCAL RUGBY

Army And Club Draw

FLOYD BADLY INJURED

A disappointing rugby match was seen on the Club ground on Saturday when the Army held the Club first fifteen to a draw, each of the teams scoring a try.

Floyd, the brilliant Army stand-off-half, retired from the game 15 minutes before the interval with a wrenched shoulder, muscle, while Boyling and Preece were both kicked on the head.

Several newcomers made their first appearances. J. P. Whitham, after a long absence, was seen in his old position as full-back for the Club. Read made his first appearance for the Club seniors and gave a good display, being very dangerous in the opening half.

Blidwell was brilliant at stand-off-half.

The Army were forced to field a much weaker team than they expected. L/Cpl. Davies, who recently recovered from a shoulder operation, being an absentee although selected to play. His place was filled by Jones, while two changes were made in the pack. Gnr. Wright displacing Lieut. Calvert and Cpl. (56) Davies being included instead of Fus. Chaney.

Lieut. Davenport, who filled the left-centre threequarter position, was very sound in his defence.

CLUB "A" BEATEN

The ship's Rugby team from H.M.S. Dorsetshire made their first appearance in the Colony on Saturday when they beat the Club "A" fifteen on the latter's ground by two goals, a dropped goal and two tries (20 points) to a goal, a penalty goal and a try (11 points).

ed on the advantage with swift and incisive raids. Right from the start of their attack it had seemed that the St. Joseph's had under-estimated their opponents. Leonard stood head and shoulders above the rest of his team-mates, while Marques gave a brilliant display between the sticks.

Eastern opened the scoring after four minutes of play through Chan Yue-tin. The equaliser for St. Joseph's came after twenty minutes when Leonard, after beating two of the Chinese defenders, placed the ball along the ground just inside the upright.

Leonard scored again after resumption of play in the second half and shortly after Fernandes received a powerful clearance from Costa and he made no mistake with his finishing effort after a clear run for goal. Ten minutes before the end Sung Ling-sing reduced the arrears.

RECREO BREAK UP AGAINST FUSILIERS
A game which had every indication of leading to a scoreless tie and which eventually developed into a goal-shooting practice for the winners was recorded on Saturday when Recreo went down to the Fusiliers by the amazing score of seven goals, all of which were netted during the last twenty minutes of the game. Right from the start the Recreo were endowed with phenomenal good-luck which saw many of the Fusiliers shots narrowly missing the goal-mouth or being smartly cleared by the Recreo backs.

Talbot, playing at centre-half, proved himself an inspired leader and his long passes to the wings often threw the Recreo defence off their balance. It was perhaps this player's most brilliant exhibition of the year and he gave the opposing side plenty of worry with his persistent feeding of his forwards at advantageous positions.

The Recreo were handicapped by the absence of three of their regular players—Beltrao, Fernandes and Alves—and fielded a team that was undoubtedly very weak at certain positions. A. V. Gosano was the driving force of the Recreo side but towards the end of the game the veteran player was beginning to find the pace too much for himself.

The Fusiliers' first goal was the result of a free-kick awarded against Marques, the Recreo goalie, who ran outside the penalty area with the ball in his hands. Hughes converted the kick when he scrambled the ball past Marques. It was after Sullivan had netted the second goal for the soldiers that the Recreo eleven went to pieces and the Fusiliers scored one goal after another with clock-like regularity. The rest of the game was netted by Sullivan, Evans (3) and Keating, the last named scoring from a "spot-kick" just before the whistle.

ST. JOSEPH'S WIN HARD FOUGHT GAME

Although it seemed at one period that extra time would be necessary to decide who should enter the next round, the Senior Shield encounter between St. Joseph's and Eastern at Causeway Bay on Saturday resulted in a win for the former by three goals to two. The game fell short of expectations but what it lacked in finesse was adequately compensated for by the way in which both teams threw themselves into the fray.

With the exception of the first fifteen minutes, the Eastern press-

Deciding Games

HUNG-WILSON AND RUMJAHN-CHIU WIN

A fairly large crowd of spectators witnessed the deciding semi-finals of the Open Mixed Doubles Lawn Tennis Championship which were played at the Chinese Recreation Club on Saturday afternoon. The game on the first court, between W. C. Hung and Mrs. Wilson and Capt. Milne and Mrs. Ashton, resulted in a win for the former pair, while in the other match H. D. Rumjahn and Mrs. Chiu went the full distance to defeat E. C. Fincher and Mrs. Peacock.

The tennis in the first game was not of a very high standard due to the fact that Hung and Mrs. Wilson proved too good for their opponents. The lack of opposition failed to give the winners, who are favoured to secure the title, any opportunity to give of their best.

Although they won the first set of their match, Fincher and Mrs. Peacock were not able to force home their advantage. After an indifferent start, H. D. Rumjahn settled down to a steady game and, supported by his partner's sound defence, they wore down the opposition to win the next two sets.

The results of the games were as follows:—

W. C. Hung and Mrs. Wilson beat Capt. Milne and Mrs. Ashton, 6-1, 6-1.

H. D. Rumjahn and Mrs. Chiu beat E. C. Fincher and Mrs. Peacock, 2-6, 6-2, 6-4.

CLOSING DAY

Kowloon Bowling Green Club

SUCCESSFUL SEASON

"Closing Day" at the Kowloon Bowling Green Club was celebrated on Saturday with a large attendance of members. Mrs. A. MacFarlane distributed the prizes won during the season.

Two sports were featured: a lawn bowls match between the President's team and the Vice-President's, which was won by the former by 41 shots; and a tennis match in which the Reds lost to the Blues.

The President, Mr. B. Wylie, addressed the gathering as follows: To-day marks the closing of our 38th season, this being the pioneer club of the Far East and I think I may say that we have done and are still doing our bit to foster the game in the Colony. In fact our members are still doing pioneer work, for this summer a team under the guidance of Mr. Petherick has blazed a trail across the West of England with no little success. The Hong Kong Travel Association should be really grateful to our bowlers at home putting Hong Kong on the map yet in their official guide they seem to have ignored the existence of Bowling Clubs in the Colony.

SUCCESSFUL SEASON

This Season has again been a successful one in the Lawn Bowls League although our first team could not rise above third position, our juniors again proved themselves worthy Champions of the 2nd Division, a position obtained after a wonderful display of team work throughout the season. In the H.K.L.B.A. Open events our Mr. Randle, fresh from his triumph at Wankstead, together with Mr. R. Duncan, won the pairs championship of the Colony and Mr. Randle further distinguished himself by skipping the winning English team in the Gutierrez International Rink Competition.

Coming to Club competitions, we have great pleasure in congratulating Mr. McKelvie as our new club Champion and he is also the winner of the Singles Handicap! Mr. Randle has further demonstrated that you cannot keep a good bowler down by winning the President's prize and Mr. Russell has again put his name on the Honours board by capturing the Vice-president's. The Handicap Doubles was won by Messrs Logan and Read and we congratulate them and also Mr. Walker on making himself ineligible for the Non-prize Winners event next year. The Wappingshaw Competition proved even more popular than in the previous season and this type of game has evidently come to stay. Mr. Taylor, who was second last year has gone one better this time and we congratulate him on his success.

TENNIS SECTION

Coming to Tennis, this section is indeed a virile one and a number of American tournaments have been keenly contested throughout the year. Tennis Club Championship! Our heartiest congratulations to Mr. Sturgeon on winning this for the first time. The Men's Handicap Singles was won by Mr. Woolley and the corresponding Ladies event by Mrs. Lawson and they are both to be congratulated on their successes. Mrs. Millar annexed the Ladies Non-prize Winners, whilst the Ladies Handicap Doubles went to Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Clarke. The Mens Double resulted in Messrs Barrett and Woolley dividing the honours with Capt. Barling and Mr. Clarke. To all these and also to Mrs. Millar and Mr. Barrett for their win in the Mixed Doubles, we offer our congratulations.

Before calling upon Mrs. MacFarlane to present the prizes I would like to thank those members who have either donated prizes or contributed to the Prize Fund (Applause).

QUEENSLAND COLLAPSE

Good Bowling By Verity

Brisbane, Nov. 28.

After being 117 for 1, Queensland were all out for 243 and the M.C.C. finished up the day 9 runs in arrears with all their second innings wickets in hand.

Resuming the innings at 71 for 0, Brown and Rogers took the score to 117 before Rogers was dismissed for 62 after an innings that lasted 123 minutes and produced seven boundaries. Brown scored 74 in 177 minutes, hitting seven boundaries.

Verity then had an inspired spell, during which period Queensland lost their next seven wickets for 76 runs! Bowling with unusual guile and being accuracy personified, he had the following figures before the tea interval:

O.	M.	R.	W.
25.3	9	33	5

and finished up with:

O.	M.	R.	W.
30	9	50	5

THE SHARE MARKETHarriman's Weekly Review

Saturday, Nov. 28.
Messrs. G. A. Harriman & Co's weekly share report and market review issued at noon to-day states:—

Trading has been on a smaller scale during the last week than for many weeks passed, and the continued decline in Philippine mining quotations has been reflected in the local market, which although not weak, is in apathetic mood with buyers and sellers difficult to connect. The closing tone is dull. However a fair business has been done during the week in utility stocks. China Lights were in active demand up to $14 but upon publication of the annual figures (which show a slight decline in earnings, compared with the previous twelve months) and the announcement of the usual 10% dividend, sellers appeared and the closing quotation has fallen back to $13.50 cum.

Hong Kong Electric's were in good demand up to $53, but are slightly easier now at $52 1/2. Star Ferries are sought for at $93 and Yaumatei Ferries at $25. Telephones (old) have lapsed to a nominal middle quotation of $28.25 but the "New" have buyers around $9.75. Trams came to business at $12.50, at which figure sellers are now plentiful. Cements offer at $11.25. Dairies at $21 and Ropes $1.

Humphries have keen buyers without attracting sellers at about $9.60—Lands offer at $38 and Hotels are quiet at $5.75 middle.

There continues to be unsatisfied buying demand for Banks, now at $1735 and for Unions for which bids of $592 are offered (after sales at $595, Canton Insurance can be taken at $2674 and Hong Kong Fire at $2574 or near offer.

Steamboats sold as high as $7.25, and have further enquiries. Sales were also made of Wharves at $109 and of China Provident (old) at $1.85.

New Goldfields of Venezuela have come in for buying atten in and are now $8 bid. This company having just paid its maiden interim dividend of 5% we anticipate further improvement. The par value of the shares is $5/-, so they are still under 100% premium, which is surely conservatively valued in comparison with the many times par valuation put on the majority of the Manila Gold shares, few of which are yet paying dividends. Raubs have eased to sales at $13.25 cum. Ewos steadily advanced throughout the week to $8 1/2, but close slightly below this.

Philippine mining shares. The easy tendency noted in our last report has continued and the average of quotations is lower. A considerable turnover was done in San Mauricos down to $3.90 and in Demonstrations down to $1.22. Consolidated Mines were also active and close 24 points off at 5 cents middle. Paracale Gumauas sold at 74 cents, but close on offer at 70 cts. The rest of the Manila list is without recorded sales, but has mostly sellers. So far as Hong Kong is concerned the frantic buyers of two months ago, (for all Manila gold shares) are now almost keen to sell, so it seems not unlikely that the selling will be overdone in the same way as was the bull movement, for there are no half measures among local operators.

Concluding comment. Hong Kong Market quietly steady, business difficult. Manila continues easy.

BERLIN SHARE MARKET

("Hong Kong Daily Press" Special)

Berlin, Nov. 28.

Business on the share market was again at a low ebb on Saturday with nothing taking place to cause investors to abandon their passivity. Only small transactions occurred at weaker quotations, but at the close there was a partial rally.

The large banks report that in the first six days, half of the amount allotted to them for marketing had been applied for. Otherwise, the bond market is in a dull. The money market is influenced by the new Reichs loan issue, demand for other government papers being small and chiefly concentrated on accommodation papers of very short term.

TEA PRODUCTION QUOTA

London, Nov. 28.

The tea production quota, which will be announced on November 30, is not expected to produce any fireworks similar to those encountered following the recent meetings of the other commodity regulating committees. The majority of tea traders do not look for any change in the present exportable allowance of 82 1/2 per cent for the year from April 1, 1937, to March 31, 1938.

Should a change be decided upon, however, it is generally thought that it will take the form of a slight reduction of the present quota, thus helping the rather burdensome stock position and at the same time enabling the gardens to obtain more remunerative prices in London.

Baby's Nannie advised me to use this Talcum Powder

"One day I came home hot and tired after four strenuous sets of tennis—my skin felt hot and prickly all over. Nannie had just finished Baby's evening toilet, and as I was going in to the bathroom, she offered me baby's tin of Cuticura Talcum. I've never known anything so soothing—it is the finest talcum powder I've ever known—after strenuous exercise I ask for no better pick-me-up than a bath finished off with this talcum. The perfume alone made me love it at once—such a delicate, sweet fragrance."

It is because of its fineness and absolute purity that Cuticura Talcum is recommended by doctors and nurses for a baby's sensitive skin. And this is the reason why women find it a joy to use after bathing—or whenever the skin is chafed and feels tender. No other powder is so satiny smooth—it is like a cooling balm on a hot skin. And its sweet, refreshing fragrance perfumes the whole body long afterwards.

Buy a tin today. It is invaluable for every member of the family.

Sold by all Chemists and Stores.

Sample of Cuticura Talcum, Soap and Ointment sent on receipt of 25 cts.

Address: Muller & Phipps (Asia) Ltd., P.O. Box 25, HONG KONG.

TRAGIC SPAIN

Record Of Internal Turmoil

BY
W. L.

Ex-King Alfonso XIII ascended his inherited throne in 1902. His was not an easy task. Already the following year he had to fight socialist unrest in Barcelona. On his wedding day a bomb was thrown at the Royal Carriage, but the Royal couple were uninjured. His reign was occupied chiefly in pacifying the various parties.

During his reign he also had to contend with the Morocco unrest, fighting with the French against Abd el Krim, who was finally banished by France.

In Spain one unrest and revolt succeeded the other, until finally the King put his trust into General Primo de Rivera, who, in 1923 erected a Military Dictatorship.

The parties were dissolved, the Cortes sent home. Taking all in all the period of Primo de Rivera's dictatorship was a period of peace for Spain. There was now time to give attention to the economic development of the harassed country.

However, in 1930 divergences arose between the King and his General, and ended in the dismissal of Primo de Rivera, who shortly afterwards died in France.

Again the reign of the parties began, the one side fighting against the other, and in May, 3 months after Primo de Rivera's dismissal, labour strikes began in Asturias. In December 1930, Major Ramon Franco, the brother of General Francisco Franco, started a revolution, but he was soon defeated.

Trade Unions and other strong political elements united, and opposed the established order.

In 1931, after the result of the Communal elections had become known, and because of ever increasing disorders, King Alfonso left Spain, and went to France.

A CONSTITUTIONAL FAILURE

Shaped after west and middle European examples, a democratic Constitution was set up, under the leadership of the Socialists; Church and State were separated, and the officer corps radically reduced. The new Republican Government was supported by a Parliament consisting mostly of "intellectuals," and found no support amongst the peasants. The strongly one-sided Marxist ideology of the Government called for strong opposition in the country, and found its first expression in the Sanjurjo Putsch of August 10th, 1932. This revolt was, however, started solely by the former reigning classes, and found no sympathy with the people.

NINETEEN GOVERNMENTS IN THREE YEARS!

At this point diplomatic relations with Moscow, which had rested for many years, were again taken up, and one of the foremost protagonists of Bolshevism, Lunacharsky, was first Soviet Ambassador in Spain. Systematic communist propaganda began, and soon found results when Barcelona demanded independence from Madrid, a demand which was immediately followed by the Basques. Soon petty revolts flared up, one day in Catalonia, the other day in Asturias. In the last 3 years 19 Governments tried to keep order.

DEATH AND DESTRUCTION

The Civil War of 1934 is stated to have cost the country 1,378 dead and 2,921 wounded. The damage of property exceeded 300 million pesetas; 63 public buildings, 56 churches and 26 industrial plants were destroyed.

EFFORTS AT UNITY

Proof that the Spanish people were tired of the continual disorders were the attempts made to form parties strong enough to finally unite the country.

The Nationalists have undertaken various attempts to end the disorders. The Students united in the "Junta Ofensiva Nacional Sindicalista" and the "Liga Patriótica Española," founded by Albinana. Jimenez Caballero tried to found a nationalist party. All attempts failed.

FRANCO ENTERS

In July 1936, General Francisco Franco entered into the field, and assembled all national forces around. He started in Morocco, and the Government opposed him. This is where the tragic story of the present Civil War in Spain begins.

INVASION OF SUIYUAN

Japanese And Manchukuo
Attitude

Hankow, Nov. 28.

The danger of the spread of Communism is the reason for Japanese and Manchukuo sympathy with the Inner Mongolian invasion of the Chinese north-western province of Suiyuan, declares a joint statement issued by the Japanese Kwangtung Army and the Manchukuo Foreign Office.

The statement asserts that the Chinese Government continues to be reluctant to co-operate with Japan in joint defence against the Reds, but, on the contrary, it is effecting a compromise therewith. It is added that the Inner Mongolian drive in North Suiyuan is a measure of self-defence against the increasing pressure of Communists, with which Chinese military groups are closely connected.

GENERAL STRIKE IN FRANCE

Legislation To Meet
Labour Threat

Paris, Nov. 28.

The Premier, M. Leon Blum, has replied to the threat of a general strike of the French heavy industries on December 6, by the introduction of a Bill in the Chamber providing for compulsory arbitration in all labour disputes before a strike or a lock-out. The debate has been fixed for December 1.—Reuter.

and that the Japanese Army is not indifferent to the eventual contingencies tending to disturb the peace of Manchukuo or Bolshevism the entire territory of China, and will be obliged to take adequate measures should contingencies arise.—Reuter.

JAPAN'S BARGAIN WITH ITALY

Ethiopia-Manchukuo
Recognition

Tokyo, Nov. 28.

It is semi-officially declared that an agreement has been reached whereby Japan will recognise Italian rule in Ethiopia as a quid pro quo for Italian recognition of Manchukuo's independence and reaffirmation of Japan's commercial rights in Ethiopia.

Also included in the agreement are plans for the substitution of a Consulate for the Japanese Legation in Addis Ababa. This resolution has already been submitted to the Japanese Cabinet and approved.

It is understood there is no intention to seek Italian participation in the Japanese-German anti-Comintern alliance because Italy's delicate relations with Britain and the Soviet renders Italian participation inadvisable at the moment.—Reuter.

FOREIGN REACTIONS

London, Nov. 27.
News of the Italo-Japanese agreement has not surprised either Berlin or Paris.

German official quarters are most reticent in this connection, however, an official spokesman declaring the agreement merely concerned Italy and Japan.

French diplomatic circles remark that apart from the question of prestige, it is not clear what benefit will accrue to either side, especially as Italy, by her conquest, has effectively eliminated a threat of a Japanese invasion of Ethiopia.—Reuter.
